WaterAid Productions present:

Aladdin

and the Magic ~~Lamp~~ Bucket

It's that time of year again, (oh yes it is...), to start thinking about general revelry, Christmas entertainment and pantomimes! WaterAid has put together the essential pantomime kit, containing everything you need to set you well on the way to a fantastic production of Aladdin.

Discover the alternative story of Aladdin, set in the African village of Kumekuwa, where the water supply is being polluted so much by a wicked villain that villagers have to walk miles to fetch water. Lots of jokes and general hilarity ensue as Widow Twanky's whites get grubbier and Princess Mazulla despairs at the lack of suitable suitors.

By putting on the WaterAid Pantomime this Christmas you can raise money to help communities in Africa and Asia, where walking miles to fetch water is a daily reality. Fetching water is often the task of children, meaning they do not have the time to go to school.

You can help them by supporting WaterAid - it costs just £15 per head to provide safe water, sanitation and hygiene education for life.

Aladdin & The Magic Bucket is suitable for performance by children aged eight and upwards, with good clean humour throughout. Send off now for your Pantomime Pack, containing script, scene & set break down, costume/set/song suggestions, and helpful hints, by faxing back this form today. The pack is free, we just ask that if you stage the pantomime you make a
