India project cost examples

£100 could pay to train 10 rural community leaders as hygiene educators and motivators, who could reach 200 people.

£140 could pay for a water testing kit so 50 sources can be tested twice a year, serving 5,000 people.

£250 could pay for a household latrine serving 5.

£300 could pay for a 5-tap handwashing block for 100 children.

£500 could provide a school with a rainwater harvesting facility, supplying students with have clean water.

£800 could pay to drill a tube well 45m deep and install a hand pump, serving a community of up to 150 students.

£1000 could pay for a school toilet with separate areas for boys and girls.

£1200 could pay for skills training for 20 hand pump caretakers who can maintain 1,000 hand pumps, serving 100,000 people with a clean water supply.

£2150 could pay for a community toilet block which is disability friendly and has hygiene and menstrual hygiene facilities, serving 500 people.